

2012 JCTA Board of Directors Run-off Election Resumes

TREASURER

Bailey, Andrew—Fairdale High—I am your JCTA Treasurer and I would be honored to serve you again. I have been a teacher at Fairdale High School for five years. As a teacher, I get the opportunity to inspire my students every day and to make a difference in their lives. As an Eagle Scout, I learned community service is important and that I was meant to lead and to speak up for others. I know that perseverance means the difference and that is why I work hard every day. Thank you for all that you do and I humbly ask for your vote.

Boyd, Barbara—Maupin Elementary—The day our voices are silent to issues that really matter is the day our quality of life as we know it begins to end. I have been working with JCTA and am a willing worker. I would welcome the opportunity to be your treasurer. We work hard for our money and you should have a voice.

REGION I BOARD SEAT

ELEMENTARY SEAT B

Mayes, Joyce—McFerran Elementary—I've been a member of JCTA for over 17 years, and have served as a PR and KEA/NEA delegate. I feel it's of the utmost importance to take a more active roles in our association to affect change that will positively impact our profession. I would greatly appreciate your support.

Schrenger, Maria—Brown School—I currently serve on the JCTA BOD representing Region I, Elementary Seat B and I'm a PR for Brown School. I've been a devout public school teacher advocate and JCTA member for 20 ½ years. Also, I serve as secretary for KY Jobs with Justice (5 years). Please vote for me.

KEA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

KEA DIRECTOR SEAT C

Calloway, Beverly—Watson Lane Elementary—I am currently the KEA Director Seat C, and I respectfully ask for the opportunity to represent JCTA's initiatives at the state level. I have conscientiously been a strong advocate for equity in education and better benefits for teachers and support personnel. During the Health Care Crisis, I was a positive voice at KEA. As professional, we deserve to be treated with dignity and respect. Each day, I pledge to lead with passion.

Wright, Duan—Conway Middle—Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. I've had the honor of serving KEA and JCTA for the last nine years. I currently serve as PR and Diversity Trainer. Serving on KEA Board of Directors will be one way to actively serve my local and state. My strong leadership, education and experience will allow me to bring a much needed voice to Kentucky Education. I believe in the power and ability of change. This opportunity will allow me to do my part in helping to keep Kentucky Learning.

KEA DIRECTOR SEAT D

Chester-Burton, Beverly—Stuart Middle—I teach respect, responsibility, confidence, and integrity. I am an ECE teacher seeking the opportunity to represent you as KEA Director. . I currently serve as the NEA Women's Caucus Chair, for the Mid-Atlantic region. As a JCTA board member, I have served on the following committees: Governance, Education Quality Oversight, Credentials and Elections, Professional Leave, Human and Civil Rights, Discipline, and Social Affairs. I am committed to working with our members towards strengthening public education in our global society. Together we can "Keep Kentucky Learning." I respectfully ask for your vote.

Wright, Duan—Conway Middle—Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. I've had the honor of serving KEA and JCTA for the last nine years. I currently serve as PR and Diversity Trainer. Serving on KEA Board of Directors will be one way to actively serve my local and state. My strong leadership, education and experience will allow me to bring a much needed voice to Kentucky Education. I believe in the power and ability of change. This opportunity will allow me to do my part in helping to keep Kentucky Learning.

KEA COMMITTEES

KTRS NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Lanshima, Vitalis—Conway Middle—It takes passion to make a difference. I've channeled my passion to make a difference in the lives of educators. Please help me channel passion to serve educators by electing me as our JCTA Vice president. I hold a rank I and completing my doctoral degree. I serve(d) on the JCTA and KEA Board of Directors, KEA New Business Committee, JCTA Human and Civil Rights, Membership and Constitution Revision Committees; Charter School & PR Training.....

Morris, Clementine—Stuart Middle—I am dedicated to the teaching profession. I have taught for 25+ years and I am a lifelong learner.