

JCTA collects items for The Home of the Innocents

Staff and members of JCTA are working together to collect items for the Home of the Innocents. Items can be dropped off at the JCTA office before 5:00 PM on Friday, December 4th, 2009.

Members may also bring items to the November 16th Professional Representative meeting.

The Home provides programs and services for these children in crisis:

- ◆ Medically fragile and terminally ill children who require 24-hour-a-day skilled nursing care.
- ◆ Those who require emergency care due to abuse, abandonment, neglect or are homeless; or who need foster care.
- ◆ To homeless, pregnant, or parenting teens, and their family members needing case management, education, parenting, and independent living skills.
- ◆ Children with autism and special needs.
